over the course of the past two centuries augustine s ecclesiology has been subject to interpretations that overdraw the distinction between the visible and invisible dimensions of the church sometimes reducing the church to a purely spiritual invisible reality over against the visible church celebrating the sacraments the empirical community is incidental at best and can be discarded by contrast this book argues that the church is a mystery that is visible and invisible far from discarding the visible augustine places greater emphasis on the empirical church as his thought develops this study traces augustine s ecclesiology from early writings to later works in order to demonstrate this thesis his early thought is heavily influenced by platonism and tends to focus on the ascent of the individual soul after his study of scripture in the 390s augustine gives priority to participation in the visible sacramental community in his mature thought the church is one mystery mysterium sacramentum revealed by scripture with visible and invisible aspects this book explores augustine s exegesis of biblical images of the church such as body of christ bride of christ city of god and sacrifice in order to show how the visible community is intrinsic to the mystery of the church jesus is lord this scandalous confession is an act of worship a pledge of allegiance a call to service and a saving act yet who is jesus christ how should we understand his life his death his resurrection and his work of salvation this book offers a perspective from the wesleyan tradition on these vital questions it introduces readers to christology the study of christ the authors encourage readers to ponder the mystery of salvation at work in christ s entire life and to make the confession jesus is lord their own the treatise is divided into three distinct parts thus 1 preliminaries 2 the amazing human life of christ on earth 3 mighty sequels in time and eternity to the human life of christ on earth mysteries both natural and supernatural surround us press us and penetrate us on all sides we are simply steeped in mysteries we are to our very selves and each one of the brethren is to us a mystery or rather a sheaf of mysteries the material universe we are in is an enormous congeries of mysteries in the inscrutable depths of the firmament in the atmosphere which envelops our planet above and beneath the surface of the earth in the oceans are found mysteries upon mysteries and mysteries within mysteries indeed when we meditate on these truths we realize just how awesome god really is let us consider the outline of the contemplation of this work i n the great mystery of jesus we can consider three distinct sets of mysteries namely 1 the mysteries of his sacred flesh and blood 2 those of his blessed human soul and 3 those of his pure godhead it is the contemplation of the sacred humanity of our lord that is to say of his human body and soul which will engross our attention in these pages and let us return whosoever pays loving reverence to the person of our lord jesus christ the word made flesh pays also loving reverence to his most sacred heart it does not matter whether he realizes this or not or actually think of it or not this consideration is very sweet and comforting it shows that the devotion to the sacred heart has been at least implicitly practised by the church and all her children from the very beginning even heretics when pious and in good faith as is the case with a certain number of them practise this devotion in spite of themselves and at the very time that they are condemning it in the catholic church indeed the worship of the sacred heart is most appropriate for these times god loves us and the sacred heart is a great demonstration of this love he devotes a chapter to other works on our lord jesus christ the order i follow is this beginning with contemporary books on our lord i work my way up through the centuries to the very first where we reach at last the bedrock foundation of the four gospels and the rest of the scriptures i could not use the word christology in this connection because it is too learned a word for many of my readers and also because the words at the head of this chapter allow of a larger scope in the choice of books to be recommended the second part of this work explores the amazing life of jesus christ let us consider jesus at four years old a bit at the age of four the child jesus was growing wholly gracious still small enough to be taken up and carried in arms an action which mary and joseph would do with unspeakable rapture yet big enough to walk alone and to make much happy stir in the house and round about it the child jesus began to smile to laugh and prattle and to enter upon an innocent and happy life like other dear little children of that age i cannot imagine the child jesus frowning no doubt from time to time his sweet mother and his foster father had suddenly come upon him and found him rapt in a state of prayer infinitely beyond his age but as a rule his appearance and conduct were those of die most beautiful perfect natural and loving little child that ever existed
