the humorous yet poignant novel of west indian migrant life in london that adds an iconic voice to the growing caribbean canon a penguin classic set in london in the 1960 s when the uk encouraged its commonwealth citizens to emigrate as a result of the post war labor shortage the housing lark explores the caribbean migrant experience in the mother country by following a group of friends as they attempt to buy a home together despite encountering a racist and predatory rental market the friends scheme often comically to find a literal and figurative place of their own will these motley folks male and female black and indian from trinidad and jamaica dreamers hustlers and artists be able to achieve this milestone of upward mobility unique and wonderful comic and serious cynical and tenderhearted the housing lark poses the question of whether their lark or quixotic idea of finding a home can ever become a reality kittitian british novelist and playwright caryl phillips contributes a foreword while postcolonial literature scholar dohra ahmad provides a contextual introduction

the author of such works as a brighter sun 1952 the lonely londoners 1956 and the plains of caroni 1970 west indian novelist samuel selvon is attracting growing amounts of scholarly attention nonetheless criticism of his works has largely been imbalanced with most scholarship focusing primarily on his language this book corrects that imbalance by placing selvon's novels within historical sociological and ideological contexts a new interpretation of selvon's achievement as a novelist the volume looks for the first time at his works in terms of categories of novels peasant middle class and immigrant the book demonstrates that each category is different from the others and that novels within categories are similar thus it provides a coherent vision of selvon's canon it illustrates as well the development of selvon's philosophy of west indians as peasant bourgeois and immigrant in doing so it explores the significance of ethnicity in his works and discusses selvon's imaginative apotheosis of the indo trinidadian peasant and the diminution of the afro trinidadian immigrant the volume also studies selvon's fictional and rhetorical techniques and argues that his works range from bildungsroman to picaresque to epic to satire black agents provocateurs 250 years of black british writing history and the law 1770 2020 is a comprehensive analysis the invaluable contributions that black writers in britain have made to british society over the last 250 years this book closely examines the lives trials and works of british slaves in the eighteenth century black authors historians and medics in the nineteenth century and black poets playwrights novelists and intellectuals in the twentieth and twenty first centuries it also highlights their contributions to legal changes such as the abolition of slavery act 1833 the criminal appeal act 1907 and the race relations act 1965 as well as the adverse effects that laws such as the criminal evidence act 1984 the asylum and immigration acts 1996 and the coronavirus act 2020 have had upon black lives in britain this groundbreaking study of prolific trinidadian writer sam selvon includes background essays interviews with selvon and critical assessments of his ten novels and collected short stories an extensive bibliography and notes on the contributors are included in addition to sam selvon the contributors to the work include whitney balliett harold barratt edward baugh frank birbalsingh e k brathwaite edith efron michel fabre anson gonzalez louis james george lamming bruce f macdonald peter nazareth v s naipaul sandra paquet jeremy poynting isabel quigley kenneth ramchand eric roach gordon rohlehr andrew salkey clancy sigal derek walcott edward wilson and francis wyndham a study of the literature of the second world war and its aftermath focusing on the welfare state and wartime visions of rebuilding britain caribbean novelist sam selvon was part of the new wave of post war west indian writers george lamming v s naipaul and derek walcott among others who would redefine what english literature meant in novels such as a brighter sun and the lonely londoners selvon invented a literary language at once playful and engaging moving to the rhythms of both literary modernism and caribbean folk tales and calypsos atlantic passages is the first book length study to place selvon's fiction at the center of postcolonial theoretical debates it measures selvon's novels against their social and cultural contexts gauging their productive counterpoise with ideas of history and community more fully than any previous study it maps the landscape of selvon's novels and their fictional confrontation with modernity in the immigrant enclaves of london and the newly independent caribbean islands black authors of the 18th century were powerful figures out walking near charing cross with one of his artist friends ignatius sancho was accosted by a young fop who cried out to his friend smoke othello sancho placed himself across the path and exclaimed in booming tones aye sir such othellos you meet with but once in a century such iagos as you we meet with in every dirty passage proceed sir the caliban prospero encounter in shakespeare s the tempest has evolved as a metaphor for the colonial experience the present study utilizes the caliban symbol in examining the influence of colonialism in caribbean literature focusing on the works of three major writers from the caribbean islands jean rhys of british descent from dominica george lamming of african origin from barbados and sam selvon of mixed indian and scottish heritage from trinidad the works chosen are set in england where the writers and their characters experience a double displacement the alienation of the exiled in the country that once colonized their own islands they are outsiders unwelcome in prospero s home country the novels dramatize the theme of physical and psychological exile rhys s characters need mirrors in which they search for an assurance of identity lamming s are torn by the conflict inherent in the tragic sense of life and selvon s ironic language expresses the deepest sense of exile exile from one s own self other caribbean writers are included in the analysis and the volume concludes by examining contemporary writers for whom caliban s role in literature appears to be changing novelists like earl lovelace and jamaica kincaid demonstrate that it is possible to be an outsider in one s own country and that issues of class can be as corrosive as issues of race the focus has moved beyond physical exile but the spirit and strength of caliban continue to pervade the new literature in giving expression to their anguish both the earlier and new caribbean writers have created highly interesting and successful fiction this well crafted thematic study of caribbean literature will be of great value to students teachers scholars and readers of third world post colonial and multicultural literature
